

Industry Affiliation : thyssenkrupp to sponsor VDMA's Mechanical Engineering Summit

We will sponsor the 9th VDMA Mechanical Engineering Summit of the VDMA which will be held on 22nd Jan 2021 in Pune, in position in the 'Members Corner'.

The event will bring together a number of VDMA Member companies from various engineering sectors from all over India. Senior Management representatives are touted to grace the physical event.

The VDMA is active in the engineering landscape regularly taking up industry issues at various levels. In recent times, our CEO & MD gave the keynote address at a meeting of its members.
